SECTION A
(Reading – 20 Marks)

Q1. Read the following passage carefully:

(5 marks)

Next morning I had an idea. It was nothing clear cut, merely speculative, but I considered it all the way to school. Then, after assembly, as soon as they were quiet, I went in. This might be a bit rough I thought, but here goes. 'I am your teacher, and I think it right and proper that I should let you know something of my plans for this class. I tried to pitch my voice into its most informally pleasant manner. We're going to talk, you and I, but will be reasonable with each other. I would like you to listen to me without interrupting in anyway and when I have finished anyone of you may say your piece without interruption from me. I was making it up as I went along and watching them, at the least sign that it wouldn't work. I'd drop it.

They were interested, inspite of themselves, even the dark Denham was leaning forward on his desk watching me. "My business here is to teach you and I shall do my best to make my teaching as interesting as possible. If at any time I say anything which you do not understand or with which you do not agree, I would be pleased if you would let me know. Most of you will be leaving school within six months or so, that means that in a short while you will embark on the very adult business of earning a living. Bearing that in mind, I have decided that from now on you will be treated not as children, but as young men and women, by me and by each other. When we move out of the state of childhood, certain higher standards of conduct are expected of us.

Complete the following statements by selecting the most appropriate options from the ones given below :

(a) The first paragraph suggests that the teachers, ideas were

_____.

- (i) carefully thought out.
 - (ii) quite ineffective.
 - (iii) rather hesitant.
 - (iv) very involved.
- (b) As he spoke he watched them carefully in order to _____.
- (i) see whether they understood his proposals.
 - (ii) drop his plan if it wasn't acceptable.
 - (iii) recognize the right reaction when it came.
 - (iv) get out quickly if it didn't work.
- (c) "They were interested, inspite of themselves" means _____.
- (i) they were forced to be interested.
 - (ii) they did not want to be interested.
 - (iii) they could not help being interested.
 - (iv) they did not like the fact they were interested.
- (d) The main change he proposed to introduce was _____.
- (i) to teach them things which were useful.
 - (ii) to show them how to earn their living.
 - (iii) to change them from being children.
 - (iv) to treat them as adults.
- (e) 'Embark on' in the passage means to :
- (i) carry. (ii) light.
 - (iii) begin. (iv) earn.

Q2. Read the following passage carefully:

The Chinese proverb "without rice, even the cleverest woman cannot cook" is true for innumerable Indians too. Eaten simply boiled, rice is the world's most important staple and it's also had as delectable pulao, biryani, idli, appams, puddings or kheer. And the grain is available in numberless varieties the world over.

Contrary to some urban myths, scientists and diet experts know that rice is good for you and can't make you the heavier. It mainly comprises carbohydrates that do not add kilos if consumed in moderation. "Rice is not fattening" says Richa Anand, chief dietitian at Dr. L.H. Hiranandani Hospital, Mumbai. "An average 100 gm serving of rice has only about 0.4 gm of fat". Infact this serving has no more than 100 calories. And, writes noted cookery expert Tarla Dalal, "Rice has approximately the same calories as whole wheat and hence is not more fattening."

Rice Kanji is, therefore, a home remedy for diarrhoea. In fact, Kanji along with a few food items like coconut chutney and cooked beans, makes for a healthful meal that millions in Kerala enjoy.

White or Brown? Unpolished brown rice may not be as popular as white, but is a good source of complex carbohydrates providing starch and fibre. It takes relatively more time to digest allowing the body to consume the energy released over an extended period. Brown rice is also richer in B vitamins, vitamin E and minerals like manganese and selenium, which makes it more nutritious than white varieties.

Since rice has no cholestrol or sodium, it is safe for those suffering from hypertension. Diabetics who prefer rice could choose brown (but check with your doctor first).

Who Loved BEST?

"I love you, Mother," said little John;
Then, forgetting his work, his cap went on,
And he was off to the garden swing,
And left her the water and the wood to bring.
"I love you, Mother," said Rosy Nell-
"I love you better than tongue can tell,";
Then she teased and pouted full half the day,
Till her mother rejoiced when she went to play.
"I love you, Mother," said little Fan'
"Today I'll help you all I can;
How glad I am that school doesn't keep!"
So she rocked the babe till it fell asleep.
Then, stepping softly, she fetched the broom,
And swept the floor and tidied the room;
Busy and happy all day was she,
Helpful and happy as child could be.
"I love you, Mother," again they said'
Three little children going to bed;
Do you think the mother fussed

THE BERMUDA TRIANGLE

At 2 pm on 5 December 1945, five US bombers took off from Fort Lauderdale in the USA for a training flight in perfect weather. Shortly afterwards, the pilots radioed that their flight instruments were all malfunctioning. Two hours after take-off, all contact with the planes was lost. A reconnaissance plane was immediately dispatched to search for the missing planes. Within 20 minutes, radio contact with it had also been lost. No trace of any of the planes was ever found. In all, six planes and 27 men had vanished into the air.

The disappearance of the six planes was far from being the first mysterious incident in the area: for years, navigational problems and strange magnetic forces had been reported. The disappearance was not even the greatest disaster within the triangle. The Cyclops, a 19,000-ton US ship was sailing from Barbados to Norfolk, Virginia. In March 1918, when it vanished with its crew of 309 from the surface of the ocean without making a distress call and without the slightest wreckage ever being found.

The losses of boats and planes in that area defy explanation. The disasters are the origin of a new phrase in the English language - the Bermuda Triangle and this phrase has entered legend. The Bermuda Triangle has been called the Devils' Triangle, the Triangle of Death, the Graveyard of the Atlantic. It has swallowed up 140 ships and planes and more than 1,000 people. Today many airmen and sailors are still afraid of that area of the Atlantic Ocean.

Complete the following sentences in a suitable manner.

- (a) The Bermuda Triangle is also known as _____
- (b) "The Cyclops" was the name of _____
- (c) The Bermuda Triangle has caused _____
- (d) On 5th Dec 1945 _____
- (e) To search for the five bombers a _____.
